KORNHEAD

From time to time Jacob Korn und Cuthead team up for a dynamic duo called Kornhead. Although they have quite different approaches to production you can be sure that what comes out of their collaboration is the product of having a lot of fun. Just listen to “Sur La Plage” from Uncanny Valley’s 20th release or “Makin’ Love” from Jacob Korn’s album “You & Me”. And if you have one of the rare chances to see them play their Kornhead show live, don't hesitate. Purification may not be guaranteed, but it is relatively likely. It's not for nothing they also work under the mysterious abbreviation h4mf.
